

Bell could be using this small army of ISP's to there advantage in fighting Cable rather than at every step trying to take away from us what we have worked so hard to build! Independent ISP's are known for better service, better pricing (when they can), and employ people in the local communities. Bell's predatory practices is eroding them faster than cable. Help keep them in business, they do a great service for america!